

DELL HITCHCOCK

Dr. Dell is the brain and brawn behind the League. The brawn entails shuffling chairs around the rehearsal room and hauling keyboards, audio equipment and lighting from one venue to another. The brain involves the creation of the league, selection and arrangement of the music, directing and accompanying. She spent her first seventy years as a mother of three, a church musician, and director of community musicals.