

LEON JOUOLMON was a charter member of Lyric League in Elberton, where he and Bonnie raised their son, Leon, and twins Brooke and Meredith. He now has a myriad of grandchildren; all are musical, of course. Leon recently 'retired' from Southeastern Power, and sings in the FUMC choir in Elberton. He was Don Octave in P.D.Q.Bach's The Stoned Guest, a sailor in H.M.S. Pinafore, and Pish-Tush in The Mikado. Leon has an amazing vocal range and is an experienced musician and barber-shop singer.
