

MEL HILL has enjoyed singing since his youth and still feels that it is the cheapest therapy in town. He and his beautiful wife LaVerne are doing a lot of walking and talking since his retirement from the University. They are the proud parents of two bright and talented twenty-somethings. At UGA, Mel was the Stephens Fellow in Law and Government.