

REGIS-MARIE Z. STAMEY

Regis is retired from the city of Atlanta police force and lives in Loganville. She sang for many years with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus under Robert Shaw and now enjoys singing and playing the flute for churches and senior groups. She performs with the Monticello Community Band, the New Horizons Band in Athens, and Covington Conyers Community Orchestra. She also sings with the "HI LOWS" and plays flute with them. They are a chorus of seniors from Heritage Center in Snellville, GA. Regis recently added Yargo Community Concert Band.