

RICHARD WARD and his bride Cleo, both native Atlantans, moved to the woods in the Colbert, GA area in 2008, along with son Derek and daughter-in-law Gina, our Lyric League diva extraordinaire. Much of Richard's musical experience has been instrumental; he played in the Furman University Concert and Marching Band and later with the 82nd Airborne Division Band at Ft. Bragg, NC. He sang with the Decatur Civic Chorus (a sixty-year old group) from 1997 until 2007. This group from Decatur, GA has performed across the US and also in Europe and the UK. Richard has a smooth, deep bass voice and enjoys using it to wow the girls.
