

TERY OVERBEY

We met Tery twenty or so years ago when he joined Winder FUMC choir under Dell's direction. While director of the Athens Choral Society, Dell gave Tery the plum role in Gilbert and Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore. Thereafter he was stage struck and now is an avid member and officer in Winder Barrow Community Theatre. Lyric League and the Theatre give him opportunities to seek out new roles, explore strange new characters and boldly go where no sane person has gone before. His first love is spending time with his family, including wife Jenni, daughter Jami and newly arrived granddaughter Samantha Jefferson.
